

Learning Kitchen Project Manager (Term Position)

The FEED NOVA SCOTIA Learning Kitchen is an employment and skills development program which provides participants with the skills and training necessary to succeed in entry level positions in the food service sector. The program targets individuals who are experiencing a wide variety of barriers to successful employment. FEED NOVA SCOTIA is currently recruiting a Project Manager (Term Position) who will provide the leadership and expertise to maintain the program's high standard of success.

The successful candidate will:

- Supervise staff and be responsible for program administration
- Deliver the life skills and employment readiness curriculum
- Maintain established, and identify new, partnerships within the food service sector; and with funding partners and referring agencies
- Support and mentor participants
- Evaluate and make recommendations regarding program development
- Be responsible for site Management

Qualifications and Experience in:

- Program Management and Staff Supervision
- Adult Education specific to Life Skills and Employment Readiness
- Training and experience in the areas of counseling, conflict resolution and cultural diversity
- Post Secondary education in social sciences, education or related human services field
- Strong communications skills
- Knowledge of food service sector an asset

If you are looking for an outstanding opportunity with a non-profit organization, please apply online by following the links at: www.feednovascotiajobs.ca.

We thank you for your interest in employment with FEED NOVA SCOTIA. However, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.